Seniors – Class of 2020

We hope this message finds you doing well and staying healthy during this unexpected time of social distancing and distance learning. Here are some items we hope can help assist you.

How to reach your counselor:	All counselors can be reached by email. Jane Morrill (A-Dia) jmorrill@sandi.net Justina Estrada (Dib-Ja) jestrada1@sandi.net Leslie McDonald (Jb-More) lmcdonald@sandi.net Sara Beth Hatfield (Morf-Sel) shatfield@sandi.net Matt Johnson (Sem-Z) mjohnson6@sandi.net
Update your student email in Naviance:	Add a student email address to your Naviance account so you can receive important information from your counselor. This does not have to be your school email address, just the email address you check the most. How to add your email to Naviance: a) Log on to Naviance. If you do not know how to log on, the directions can be found on the counseling website. b) https://srhscounseling.wixsite.com/scripps-ranch/naviance-1 c) Once logged on to Naviance, click on "About Me", found near the top right corner of the webpage. d) Then click on "My account" e) Go to the box on the right titled "Contact", and click on the word "EDIT" in the top right corner of the box. Type in the best email that can be used to reach you. Please double check there are no typos before saving. f) Press "Save" to submit your email.
Requesting a Transcript:	If you need to request a transcript to be sent to a college, scholarship or NCAA, please use the directions provided on the website. https://srhscounseling.wixsite.com/scripps-ranch/transcript-requests IMPORTANT: Official transcripts sent to colleges must also be requested on Naviance. You must add your college to the "colleges I am applying to" list (if it isn't on there already) AND electronically request the transcript. Please note, some colleges will ask you to send in a transcript when you commit to the school and will also request a final transcript. The registrar will put out information for how to request a final transcript once we get closer to the end of the year.*

Miramar Application:	We will no longer be able to offer the workshops on campus, as originally planned, however, Miramar is working on a new process to assist our students. Once we are given the new information we will update you.
Scholarships:	Scholarships are listed in Naviance under the section titled "College". Scholarships are also advertised on the College Corner, SRHS Foundation supported site. Once you have chosen a college, look at their website for information about Scholarships specific to your college or major. College Corner webpage (Once on this page, click on the blue button that says "Visit College Corner") https://srhsfoundation.org/college-corner
Still undecided on your plans for next year?	Email your counselor so they can assist you in deciding on a plan and next steps.
How to get access to more information and stay informed from your SRHS Counselors:	1) Check out the new counseling website https://srhscounseling.wixsite.com/scripps-ranch 2) Follow us on Instagram Info. for all SRHS students @srhs.counseling Info. for SRHS Seniors @srhsseniorvision_2020

We want to encourage you to continue to do your school work (to the best of your ability) and stay in communication with your teachers, so you are better prepared for wherever you choose to fly off to after graduation,
i.e., college, vocational programs, military, workforce, etc.
